OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Plaster flower vase with floral decoration. Mostly white with teal sections separated by blue lines. The opening of the vase is rimmed with gold. The inside of the vase is white. There is a crack in the rim which has been repaired with glue. The bottom of the vase indicates that it was handmade by Kutahia in Athens

ORIGIN

Kutahia is a small merchant in Athens that makes statues and pottery which reflect the tradition of Ancient Greece. Although their products are handmade, they are reproductions.
