OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A colorful ceramic vase. It is taller than it is wide; very narrow at the bottom, wider in the middle, and becomes narrow again at the top. The top is crowned with a fin-shaped opening and small hole. It is painted with black horizontal stripes with white dots. In between the black lines are various blue, pink, yellow, and black designs painted on a red background. At the top, the mouth of the vase is painted blue and the lip is yellow. The lip is narrow and nearly comes to a point at one end.
