OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Small female doll with black hair in a bun and a painted face. Head seems to be made out of a harder plaster type material while the hands, feet, and body are made out of plastic. Her legs are hollow and her upper arms are wire. She wears a pink dress with an orange underskirt and yellow sleeves. She has a multicolored band at the bottom of her skirt(s) as well as a lace trimming. Her top has embellishments of green and gold. She has a pink, leaf shaped apron with yellow looping. She wears white stockings and black shoes that are secured to her feet with small pins.

ORIGIN

Part of a collection of twelve dolls in traditional, regional costume. Accession number corresponds to the doll's place in the ordered list in the accession file.
