OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A black and white photograph of two men at the Illinois State Capitol. The men are both dressed in suits and are working with piles of paper. There is a microphone directly in front of the man on the left, who also wears glasses. There is a blurry man in the background who is clapping. There are a lot of people in the background.

ORIGIN

Photographs donated by Margaret Mantzoros.

Former Cook County Judge Samuel C. Maragos was an attorney who specialized in municipal law, wills, tax, commercial and trust law, Mr. Maragos practiced with his son, Dean, at Maragos & Maragos. As a state representative and state senator from South Chicago from 1968 to 1980, he helped pass the no-fault insurance law, the law against panic-peddling and bills related to the Illinois Port Authority, which he served on as vice chairman. He voted for open housing and the Equal Rights Amendment. Mr. Maragos served several terms as an appointed Cook County judge in the early 1990s.
