

OBJECT ID	1998.44.3
OBJECT NAME	Photograph
OBJECT COLLECTION	Aspasia's Collection (is part of)
DATE CREATED	1945
OBJECT ENTITIES	Christopher, Aspasia (is related to) Christopher, Chris (is related to)
RELATED ITEMS	Photograph, 1998.44.1 Photograph, 1998.44.2
ACCESS POINTS	japan kakogawa Military photograph WWII

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Chris N. Christopher standing in front of sign that reads "Kakogawa" (and additional information in Japanese characters: the sign says Kakogawa at the top in hiragana (phonetic) and kanji (chinese characters), then the two arrows point to different places: to the left "Hauden" and to the right, "Tsuchiyama" (Mount Tsuchi) The center characters are illegible). Exterior scene at train station. Other soldiers in military attire in background.

ORIGIN

Donated by Aspasia Christopher (wife of Chris).

Christopher N. Christopher (nee Christofis) 1926-1980. Born Allaquippa, PA

July 19, 1944-August 10, 1946

Southern Philippine invasion, Mindanao Island

52nd Field Artillery Battalion, 24th Infantry Division

Fire Control & Instrument Operator-Forward Observer

Message Center Chief- Sgt.

Recalled to service during Korean Action

September 1950-September 1951

OB Specialist Sgt, 309 Military Intelligence Srv. Pltn

Philippines Liberation Medal

WWII Victor Medal- Bronze Star

Army of Occupation Medal

Asiatic Pacific Campaign Medal

As a civilian Chris Christopher served as a United Nations Civil Service Officer. He was instrumental in the compilation of the International Map of the World and the Standardization of Geographical Names.

Till his death he served as teh Chief of the Cartography Section of the United Nations in NYC.

CITATION

Photograph, 1945, Aspasia's Collection, National Hellenic Museum, <https://hellenic.whirlihost.com/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 05/18/24.
