OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Black and white photo of three football players playing football. On the far left, one of the players appears furthest away and is running toward the other two in the foreground. The football player in the center is largest and closest. He was photographically captured mid-air leaping toward the third player. The third player (furthest to the right) has his right arm up in a defensive posture and is leaning away from the larger football player as if to avoid him. The background is easily interpreted as a the inside of a football stadium filled with fans.
