OBJECT DESCRIPTION

This piece uses silver silkscreen on arcylic black mortar. A depicted Jesus, applied in silver, lies on a black background in the center of the piece. This Jesus has shoulder-length hair and a beard. Jesus' head is surrounded by a nimbus. This piece is signed "Gregorios" on the lower right corner. The piece is more black in the center, and the edges become more rough and more grey as it moves outward.

ORIGIN

This painting was made by Greg Rallis and gifted to the National Hellenic Museum in 2003.
